

BOUDIOR PHOTOGRAPHY

Welcome Guide

Freya Bear Photography

Hi, I'm Jenna

I'm a photographer, wife, and mom of two who believes the most powerful moments are the ones that happen naturally. I'm a coffee-loving, book-reading creative who finds beauty in confidence, vulnerability, and real connection.

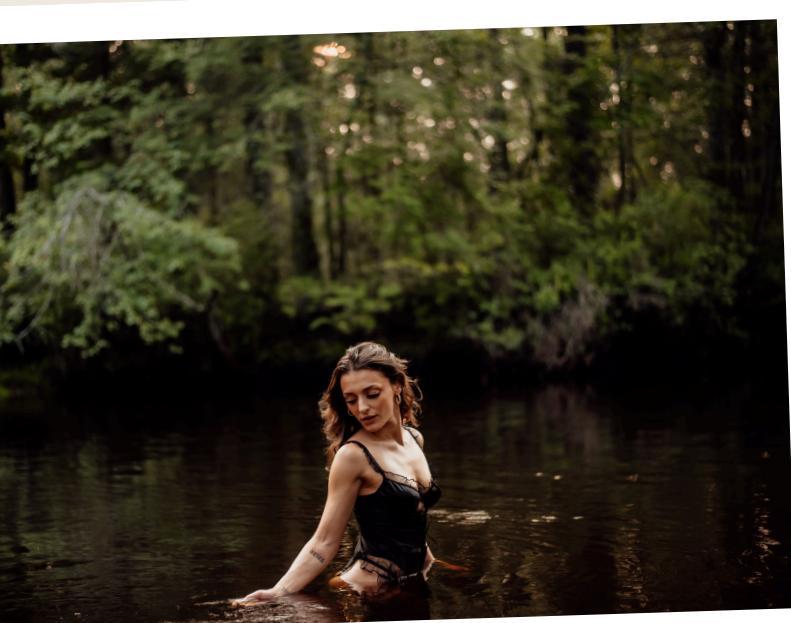

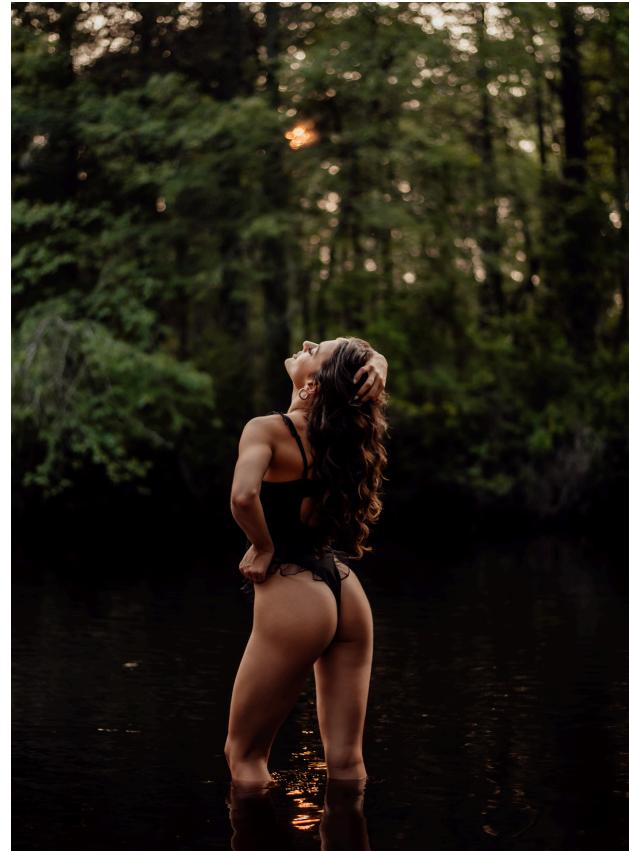

Boudoir sessions with me are about creating a safe, comfortable space where you can show up exactly as you are. Whether your session feels soft, bold, or somewhere in between, my goal is to create timeless images that celebrate your strength, beauty, and individuality.

About the Session

My favorite part of being a boudoir photographer is helping you see yourself as truly beautiful. While boudoir is often associated with feeling “sexy,” it can be so much more than that. Whether you want to feel bold, soft, confident, or empowered, it’s an experience that reflects you.

Every person who steps into my studio is unique, and my goal is to understand you—your comfort level, your insecurities, and the parts of yourself you love most—so I can highlight your beauty in a way that feels authentic and uplifting. This experience is about helping you feel confident, radiant, and unapologetically yourself.

During the session we'll do a little bit of everything - I will walk you through some super fun posing that will highlight those favorite parts of your body. I will also be sure make you laugh tons, and capture those natural smiles from your session too!

This boudoir session is all about celebrating the connection you share with your partner, and my goal is to capture it in a way you'll cherish for years to come. Every couples boudoir session is completely unique, because every relationship is different. Whether your vision is seductive, bold, playful, tender, or softly intimate, the experience is thoughtfully tailored to reflect your comfort level, personalities, and dreams.

Shower Set Add-on

The Shower Set is perfect for clients who want to add a different, elevated vibe to their boudoir experience. This in-studio set creates a steamy, sultry look—without actually getting soaking wet—giving your images that moody, sensual feel in a refined and tasteful way. It's the perfect balance of bold and elegant.

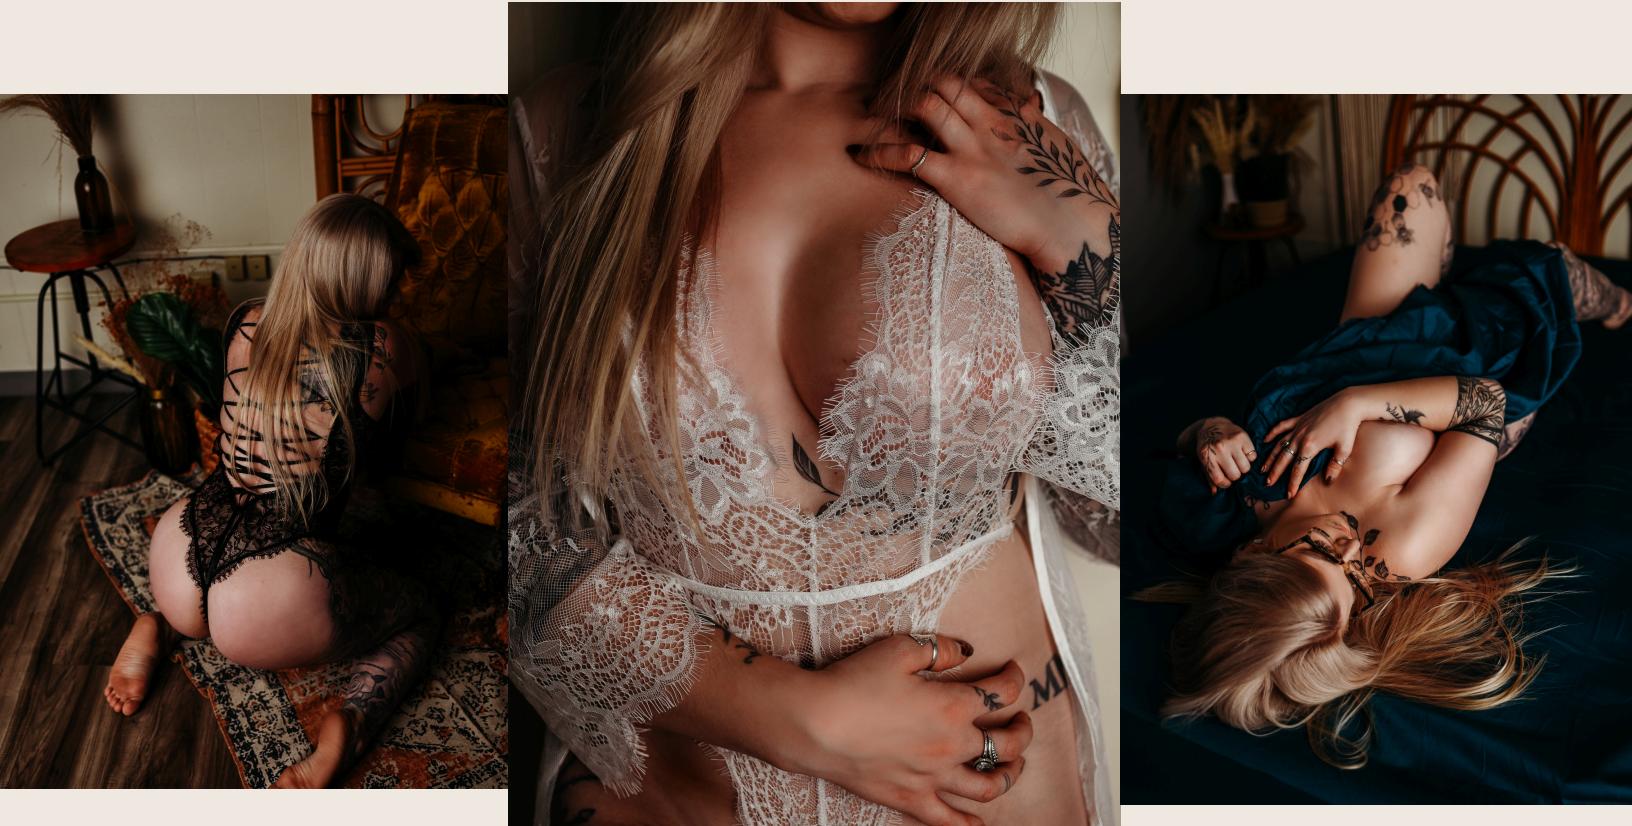

This set can be photographed nude, in a white shirt, or in your favorite lingerie, depending on the look you want to achieve. The Shower Set is offered as an additional portion of your session and is captured after your primary sets, complementing the beautiful images captured beforehand.

Things to do before your session

- Stretch! I am going to ask you to get in some strange back bending positions.
- Try on all of your outfit options before you come to your session.
- If it's in the budget, get your hair and makeup done. My girls are amazing and will make you feel at your absolute best!
- Bring yourself some water and even a light snack if you'd like.

What to wear

- Bodysuits
- Kimonos/Dusters/Bathing Suit cover ups
- An oversized sweater
- Anything that makes you feel confident!

Each Boudoir package is based on a 1 hour session, with that I always suggest 3 outfits, but if we have time for some more we will absolutely use them!

Your outfit choices will make a big difference in both how you feel, and the final product. Feel free to send me your outfit ideas, and ask questions before your session. And if there are any props you're thinking of bringing, let me know too. (Heels, pearls, fishnets, fantasy props, etc.)

Recommended Timing

My favorite time to schedule boudoir sessions is in the evening. While studio lighting can be controlled at any time of day, there's something about the evening that naturally feels more relaxed, intimate, and confidence-boosting. After the day has slowed down, it can be easier to settle into the moment, let your guard down, and truly embrace the experience.

That said, I know schedules don't always align, and that is completely okay. Boudoir sessions can be scheduled at any time of day, and the goal is to always create the same comfortable, flattering, and empowering atmosphere regardless of when we shoot. No matter the time, it's important for you to feel confident, beautiful, and fully supported throughout your session.
